

The Girls Club are vying with the Boys Club for the most interesting booths in the Carnival to be held at Scott Park, Saturday, August 21 from 10 o'clock till 11. The girls are doing a lot of whispering and giggling that stops as soon as any of the members of the Boys Club come close. And the boys are just as aloof when any of the girls are around. All of the boys and girls are interested in making the carnival this summer a success so that when Halloween comes they can have a carnival for free.

The Dolores Street School P.T.A. held a picnic at Banning Park recently as the outgoing board entertained the newcomers. Committee for the affair were Mesdames Glen Hensley, Clifford Smart, new president, and L. Martinez, outgoing president. Those attending were Carl Carter, principal; Mesdames Martinez, Smart, Hensley, James Powell, Herb Norcross, Rex Trillingham, Eugene Orlica, Robert Minchow, Harold Cassell, Robert Bigus, and Eldon Nesbit.

Petite Brunette

The delicate brunette beauty of the petite bride was enhanced by the traditional white of her lace and satin gown, over which cascaded the bridal net finger tip veil, a pearl encrusted coronet encircling her head. A white orchid marked the prayer-book she carried.

She was given in marriage by her brother, Don Blain, and her only attendant was Miss Jane Lilley, sister of the groom, who wore a ballerina length pink dress with lace bodice and bouffant skirt of tulle. A matching lace capelet covered the attendant's shoulders, and her headpiece was heart-shaped with edging of pink tulle ruching.

Mr. Larry Lilley acted as best man for his cousin, and ushers were Bob Wathan and Don Blain.

Mothers' Ensembles

Pink begonia corsages graced the shoulders of the mothers of the couple, Mrs. Julian choosing ice blue crepe with white accents for her ensemble, and Mrs. Lilley attired in pale grey pongee sparked by the white accessories she wore.

A reception for the young couple was held immediately after the wedding at the home of the bride's mother in Lynwood, where approximately 75 friends and kin gathered.

The bridegroom was a 1950 graduate of Torrance High School, and will terminate his Navy service this November. The bride graduated from Compton J. C. in 1950, and is employed at the National Supply Company in Torrance.

Postal Entourage

Maid of honor, Miss Barbara Parrot, wore a ballerina length gown of lavender, accented by the sunny yellow carnations of her bouquet, while bridesmaids Misses Lavona and Virginia Conor complimented the entourage in pink and pale blue.

Tiny 4-year-old Melberta Jean Connor was flower girl in a long bouffant pale green organza frock, the lavender sweet peas she carried completing her likeness to a fairytale.
